September Monthly News

This Month

This month, we will continue to learn all about our classroom and the new friends we share. We will focus on "How can we make friends?", and "How can we be a part of a group?" We will practice taking turns, giving compliments, and group problem solving. We will read several books about friendships We will also start our job chart next week. We will pick a job and switch each week. A good home conversation would be to ask them what their job is and talk to them about it.
